

Gold Reef City Theme Park to rock out with top SA music in June

Gold Reef City Theme Park is set to melt away the winter blues with a hot line-up of music for June at its Town Square. A host of exciting live acts are scheduled to play at the venue every weekend this month, topped off with White Rabbit and Tokyo Groove at the end of the June.

The month of music kicks off with the Mark Beling Band, headed up by Mean Mr Mustard's founder, Mark Beling, on 12 June and rock cover band, Acoustic Liquid on 13 June.

On Youth Day, 16 June, George The Beatboxer - accompanied by break dancers - will be awing crowds with his amazing skill. Visitors to the park might remember George from his successful appearances that was met with rave reviews on MNET's Idols and SABC 2's SA's Got Talent (where he was runner up).

CHB (Christian Heath Band) takes to the stage on 19 June and Derek Sassen will play an eclectic set on 20 June. It's the turn of White Rabbit on 26 June. Back on the Town Square stage by popular, Tokyo Groove will round off an awesome month of music on 27 June. It will play a selection of classic South African and international sports and victory songs in celebration of the World Cup.

*Performances take place at 13:00 and 14:30. Admission to performances at The Town Square is included in the entrance fee, which includes all rides and shows but excludes 'Jozi's Story of Gold'. The Theme Park is open from Wednesdays to Sundays and from Monday through to Sunday for the duration of the June/July School Holidays.
